

Glenn Lytle has been investing in real estate for over 15 years and co-founded Freeland Ventures with Josh in 2015 as a partner to manage investor relations and help drive private equity investments. He has ownership in over 2000 rental units and also manages over $30M in private investments which has funded over 300 fix and flip, rental and small balance commercial deals. In addition to real estate and capital management, Glenn has held executive leadership roles in some of the largest, fastest growing telecommunications companies in the US. and has built and rebuilt multiple sales and operations teams and organizations in various regions and industries.